Newtown Savings Bank held its 155th Annual Meeting on March 22nd at the Stony Hill Inn in Bethel. Retiring Trustee & Secretary Joseph R. Humeston was honored for his twenty seven years of service to the Board of Trustees, and Corporator William A. Brimmer of Newtown was elected as a new Trustee. In addition, George A. Coleman, who is currently the Acting Commissioner of Education for the State of CT, was inducted as a new Bank Corporator.

Mr. Humeston, a former Senior Executive Vice President at Newtown Savings Bank, has served the Bank in various capacities since 1977, and was elected as a Trustee in 1984. He has also served as a Board Member or Chair for many organizations including the Newtown Chamber of Commerce, Newtown Youth & Family Services (formerly FCC), the CR Booth Library, and the Newtown Economic Development Commission.

Mr. Brimmer, a twenty year Newtown resident, is a Regional Vice President at Right Management. Over the years, he has been very active in local civic and charitable organizations. In Newtown, he served for ten years on the Newtown Board of Selectmen, and has also been a member of the Legislative Council, CR Booth Library Board of Trustees and Board of Ethics. Currently, he serves as a Commissioner on the State of Connecticut Judicial Selection Committee and the State of CT Northwestern Workforce Board of Directors.

Mr. Coleman, a long time educator and author, has held numerous Commissioner positions with the State of CT Department of Education over the past twenty four years. Also a Newtown resident, he serves on many professional and community boards and councils including the local United Way and Junior Achievement. In addition, he serves as Chair of the Hord Foundation Board of Directors, a nonprofit scholarship organization based in Danbury.
