Newtown Savings Bank to sponsor Ives Fine Arts & Family Series

Newtown Savings Bank announced that it will sponsor the Fine Arts and Family Series at the Ives Concert Park in Danbury. This highly affordable series showcases classical, jazz, Shakespeare, chamber music, children's events and the extraordinary talents of local youth and area artists while providing them the opportunity to perform at a nationally recognized venue for the arts. The 2011 Fine Arts & Family Series of entertainment will include a very special edition of Newtown's popular Flagpole Radio Cafe, and a "Connecticut's Best" concert series headlined by Newtown-based country act Goldrush and local entertainer Jim Allyn.

According to John Trentacosta, President & CEO of Newtown Savings Bank, "The Ives Concert Park contributes greatly to the quality of life in this region, and we are excited to come on board as sponsor of the Fine Arts & Family Series."

In addition to the Flagpole Radio show, the series will include a production of Seussical, the Musical; a one-night show by Ives Festival Orchestra; a salute to Irving Berlin called I Love A Piano; a 30th anniversary celebration of Connecticut Ballet; an evening with Broadway star Linda Eder, and a day-long tribute and commemoration of the 9/11 tragedy.
