Newtown Savings Bank Participates in CT Veterans' Memorial Fundraising Drive

All Branches To Carry $1 Donation Card to Honor a Veteran

Governor M. Jodi Rell announced today that 22 Connecticut banks and credit unions from across the state are participating in the Governor's special fundraising drive that gives residents the opportunity to donate $1 to enroll the name of a veteran or current service member in the "Honor Roll of Heroes" at the state veterans' memorial to be built in Rocky Hill. All Newtown Savings Bank branches will accept donations through Saturday, November 13th. People who wish to make a donation can visit any of the bank's fourteen branches through Saturday, November 13th to obtain an enrollment card and contribute a dollar to the memorial's Honor Roll of Heroes.

For more information about this project please visit the memorial's website at cthonorsvets.org.
