The Tradition Continues—Newtown Savings Bank Presents Check to Newtown Labor Day Parade Committee

Newtown Savings Bank has committed $5,000 in support of the 2022 Newtown Labor Day Parade. After a two-year hiatus, this longstanding tradition will return to Main Street in Newtown on Monday, September 5, 2022.

This year marks the 60th edition of the Parade and, in celebrating this momentous diamond anniversary, the theme will be “Celebrating Newtown’s Hidden Gems.” The Grand Marshals will be Margot and Robert Hall, longtime Newtown residents who’ve both served as dedicated volunteers to numerous organizations within the community.

“Newtown Savings Bank has been a strong supporter of this event and we are happy to have them once again serve as the Title Sponsor,” shared Sarina Manibanseng, Treasurer of the Newtown Labor Day Parade Committee. “The Committee is so grateful to all of our sponsors for their continued generosity, which ensures the return of this iconic event to the Town of Newtown.”

The Parade is one of the largest in New England and boasts participation from nearly 100 local businesses and area nonprofits. Residents and friends from neighboring towns begin to stake claim to seating along the parade route as early as Sunday morning. For more information, visit newtownctlabordayparade.org.
