D’Agostino Receives Newtown’s Hometown Hero Award at United Way Event

NEWTOWN, CT – Tom D’Agostino was presented with the Hometown Hero award for Newtown at the 5th Annual United Way Hometown Heroes Benefit on December 1st in Danbury. The United Way of Western Connecticut recognized individuals, agencies and youth at the event who have made a difference across the area. The winners were selected based on several criteria including achievement, action, commitment, impact and initiative.

Mr. D’Agostino is a Vice President at Newtown Savings Bank, and has been running the Facilities Department at the Bank for over 17 years. He has been active and engaged in the Newtown community, where he has lived with his wife Cindy raising their three sons for the past 27 years. For almost a decade he was involved with Newtown Youth LaCrosse while his sons were growing up, and has been volunteering with the Cyrennius H. Booth Library in Newtown for the past eight years, devoting countless hours to this organization through his board service, chairmanship of the building and grounds committee, and also helping with the Newtown Turkey Trot fundraiser event.

In addition to his volunteer work with the library, Tom also provides many hours of support to other initiatives in the community, including co-chairing the Newtown Labor Day Parade committee for the past 17 years, and volunteering annually for the United Way Day of Action and the Newtown Relay for Life.
