

Celebrating Financial Literacy Month

April is Financial Literacy Month - a great time to focus on financial education. We're committed to providing you with resources you may need to make wise financial decisions. We'll also be hosting three financial education workshops on fraud prevention, budgeting income & expense and child savings. Follow us on social media for more financial education tips throughout the month!

You can also visit our Financial Education Center to view interactive videos which can help you make smart financial decisions.

Teach the Power of Savings

Teach your little one the power of saving this April 28th on Teach Children to Save Day!

Good financial habits are important to form, and it's never too early to start planning for the future. With our Great Start Savings Account, children can actively learn about the power of saving. Teach your little one in your life good financial habits.

Watch Out for These Common Travel Scams

You may get a call, text message, or a flyer in the mail. Or maybe you see an online ad promising free or low-cost vacations. Scammers are often behind these offers. You may end up paying hidden fees — or worse: after you pay, you might find out it's all a scam.

When planning your summer vacation beware of these common scams.

Bank News

Fundraiser for Ukraine

In support of those affected by the events in Ukraine, Newtown Savings Bank employees raised $1,135 in donations, which the Bank has matched for a total of $2,270. All funds will go to Americares, a global health-focused humanitarian organization headquartered in Connecticut. The organization is delivering medicine, medical supplies, emergency funding and relief items to the region and providing volunteer medical professionals as support.

New Corporators Elected

Welcome to our new corporators who were elected during the Bank's annual meeting in March.
