Newtown Savings Bank Announces Officer Promotions

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank recently promoted the following employees:

Manny Fernandes – Vice President, Information Technology Manager

Mr. Fernandes joined the bank in 2007 as a Network Administrator. Since then, he has held the titles of Assistant Treasurer IT Manager/Network Administrator, Assistant Vice President IT Manager, and was recently promoted to Vice President. Mr. Fernandes was a founder and chair member of the Bank's Social Media Committee, and has taken over as Committee Chair for the IT Steering committee in 2016. He has over 17 years of banking experience, and holds numerous IT certifications as well as banking and financial diplomas from the Center for Financial Training. Mr. Fernandes is active in several community events, including the Newtown Labor Day Parade, Newtown Halloween on Main Street, the United Way Day of Caring, and he also previously served as a board member of the Portuguese Cultural Center in Danbury. He resides in New Milford with his wife, Melissa.

Meghan Krebs – Vice President, Credit Department Manager

Ms. Krebs joined the bank in 2014 as Assistant Vice President, Commercial Credit Department Manager, and has served as AVP, Credit Department Manager since August 2015. She has a Bachelor of Science degree from Syracuse University. Ms. Krebs served on the Selection Committee in 2015 for the Bank's new Commercial Loan Management System, and now serves on the Implementation Committee for the Commercial Loan Management System. She also developed a new model that is currently used by the Bank's Credit Department, and was involved in a cross-departmental review of the Bank's loan policy. A resident of Danbury with her husband Andrew and their son, Ms. Krebs is also a ballet and pointe teacher at the Academy of Dance Arts in Brookfield.
