Newtown Savings Bank Hosts Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Event
John Trentacosta Presents Donation to Kevin's Community Center

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank, along with the Newtown Chamber of Commerce, hosted a Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting event on Monday, October 16th to celebrate the opening of their new branch at 32 Church Hill Road in Newtown.

The new branch, which relocated from the former 39 Main Street address on September 25th, features an expanded lobby as well as two drive-up banking lanes and both drive-up and walk-up ATMs. In addition to the branch, the new building houses the Bank's Newtown Investment Solutions group and a mortgage origination team. The Bank's administrative offices and the existing drive up ATM remain at 39 Main Street.

Over 100 people were present for the ribbon cutting ceremony which was followed by welcome comments from Newtown Savings Bank President & CEO John Trentacosta, Executive Vice President Ken Weinstein, Congresswoman Elizabeth Esty, Newtown First Selectman Pat Llodra, and Newtown Chamber President Brian Amey. Immediately thereafter, Mr. Trentacosta presented a check for $3,000 to Z. Michael Taweh, founder of the nonprofit Kevin's Community Center, to be used toward their newly acquired medical building in Newtown.

The new branch features an original art display by Newtown artist Charles Fulkerson. The display is titled "Painted Ladies" and features twelve historic homes along Main Street. Another highlight is a reproduction of the original mural depicting Newtown civic and commercial landmarks that was painted in 1964 at the 39 Main Street location by local artist Elizabeth Turner-Hall, formerly known as Elizabeth Hoeffner. There is also a Newtown map from 1868 displayed in the entrance way of the new building.

Newtown Savings Bank, founded in 1855, is a community bank headquartered in Newtown, Connecticut, with over $1.2 billion in assets. The Bank has 14 branches in Newtown, Bethel, Brookfield, Danbury, Monroe, Oxford, Shelton, Southbury, Trumbull and Woodbury, along with the New Haven Regional Lending Center in Hamden, CT.
