Amos to join Newtown Savings Bank Board of Directors

Carrie L. Amos has been elected to the Newtown Savings Bank Board of Directors beginning January 1st. Ms. Amos, a resident of Newtown, is the President of Jericho Partnership in Danbury, Founder and President of Total Wellness, LLC, and currently serves as one of the Bank's Corporators. She also serves as the interim Chairwoman of Samaritan Health Center in Danbury and is a member of the Danbury /New Milford Hospital Board of Directors (member hospitals of Nuvance Health).

Ms. Amos received her Bachelor of Arts in Social Work from Manhattanville College and a Masters in Social Work from Fordham University, where she also taught courses as an adjunct professor. She has more than 20 years' experience in the not-for-profit sector with extensive experience in leadership, executive management, community organizing and clinical social work. For the past 13 years, she has helped the most vulnerable population in the city of Danbury through her leadership at Jericho Partnership where she has shaped the vision for new mobilization efforts that have led to transformation in the city of Danbury. In 2019, Ms. Amos also founded Total Wellness, LLC, providing individual, group and organization wellness coaching and counseling services.

"Carrie brings an outstanding depth and breadth of experience and expertise to our Board along with a commitment to community that is a terrific fit for an institution with our values. I look forward to her contributions as a member of our Board," said Ken Weinstein, Newtown Savings Bank President & CEO
