

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact Information:
Tanya Wulff Truax
Vice President
Newtown Savings Bank
203.426.4440 x3079
TTruax@NSBonline.com

March 31, 2021

Newtown Savings Bank Elects New Corporators

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank elected five new corporators at its annual meeting held virtually on Tuesday, March 30th. “We are excited to welcome these five accomplished individuals to our corporator ranks,” said Ken Weinstein, Newtown Savings Bank President & CEO. In addition to their governance role as part of the bank’s mutual charter, corporators serve as ambassadors in the Bank’s communities.

Isabel C. Almeida

Ms. Almeida is President of the United Way of Western CT where she has held various roles of increasing responsibilities over the past decade. She played an instrumental role in the non-profit’s 2015 strategic decision to focus on the hard-working, struggling families that reside in the United Way’s 15-town region, which includes Greater Danbury. A Sandy Hook resident, Ms. Almeida serves as a Board Member of the Newtown-Sandy Hook Community Foundation and Vice President of the St. Rose of Lima Home and School Association in Newtown.

Dr. Michelle Brown

Dr. Brown is Dean of the Macricostas School of Arts & Sciences at Western CT State University where she oversees nearly half of the school’s academic departments, students and faculty. An award-winning energetic leader, she also serves as a Trustee on the C.H. Booth Library board in Newtown. Dr. Brown, who earned a Ph. D. from the University of Maryland, is a graduate of the Harvard University Management Development program.

William Florin

Mr. Florin is the Founder and Principal of Resu-mazing Services Company, and also a Vice President with Learning Dynamics, a corporate learning and development company where he facilitates leadership and professional development programs. A resident of Monroe, Mr. Florin serves as council chair at the United Methodist Church, and is past president of the Rotary Club of Monroe and former Board Chair of TBICO in Danbury.

Ted Parker

Mr. Parker is co-President of Vibrant Health, a leading nutrition supplement company that is headquartered in Shelton, CT, which he has co-owned with his wife Paige since 2007. In addition to holding degrees in Management and Marketing from St. John’s University, Mr. Parker has an extensive background in sales and marketing. Today, Vibrant Health is ranked #81 on the Black Enterprise List of the nation’s largest black-owned businesses.

Lawrence M. Riefberg, Esq.

Attorney Riefberg is the managing partner of the Law Offices of Lawrence M. Riefberg, LLC and owns Riefberg Real Estate & Relocation Services in Danbury, CT. A graduate of the University of Connecticut School of Law, he has been in practice for almost 40 years, with a specialty in residential real estate and relocation law. As a resident of Danbury, he has a long history of community service and was the 2015 recipient of the Amos House Good Samaritan award. He currently serves as a board member of the Fairfield County Association of Realtors.

About Newtown Savings Bank

Newtown Savings Bank is a community bank headquartered in Newtown, Connecticut, with over $1.3 billion in assets. Recently named “Best Small Bank in Connecticut” by Newsweek, the Bank has been deeply invested in the customers and communities that it serves since 1855, and has 14 branches in Newtown, Bethel, Brookfield, Danbury, Monroe, Oxford, Shelton, Southbury, Trumbull and Woodbury, along with the New Haven Regional Lending Center in Hamden, CT. For more information and location details visit www.NSBonline.com or call 800.461.0672. Newtown Savings Bank - The Power of Local.