Jennifer Sheldon Joins Newtown Savings Bank as Chief Operating Officer

NEWTOWN, CT – Jennifer Sheldon has joined Newtown Savings Bank as Senior Vice President, Chief Operating Officer. Sheldon has more than twenty-five years of banking experience, working in both branch-based and back-office operational roles.

In speaking about her decision, Sheldon stated, “Newtown Savings Bank has a great reputation in the community among customers and peer banks. It was important to me that my next role gave me the opportunity to positively impact my community, provide excellent customer service, and be a part of an exceptional team. I feel like I found that in Newtown Savings Bank.”

A resident of Stratford, Sheldon graduated from Fairfield University with a degree in Business Management, New England College of Business with a degree in Accounting, and Sacred Heart University with a certificate in Business Analytics. She is active within her community as a fifteen-year volunteer of Sterling House Community Center. She has also served on several committees in Stratford including the Economic and Community Development Commission and the Housing Partnership Committee.
