Newtown Savings Bank Supports Trumbull Housing Authority

TRUMBULL, CT – Newtown Savings Bank is donating $20,000 to the Trumbull Housing Authority (THA), a non-profit entity formed to support Stern Village and Stern Center.

The mission of the Trumbull Housing Authority is to develop and manage safe, quality, affordable housing for low-income seniors and persons with disabilities.

The funds will be used to purchase energy efficient replacement windows for the 30 year old Stern Center Congregate Building which houses 36 residents and is in need of improvements. "Energy efficient windows will increase the comfort level and lower the utility costs for the elderly tenants," says Harriet Polansky, Executive Director of THC. Although THA-Stern Village is a state sponsored agency under the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority (CHFA) and the Department of Housing (DOH), they do not receive state funding and rely on donations and grants to support their mission. Nancy Kuhn, Newtown Savings Bank Trumbull Branch Manager, who also serves on the THA board said "I am thrilled that the Bank is willing to help fund this worthy project!"
