Newtown Savings Bank Announces Officer Promotions

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank is pleased to announce the following officer promotions:

Megan Barnard – Assistant Treasurer, Digital Specialist

Megan Barnard joined the Bank in 2015 as a teller in the Monroe branch and was promoted to head teller of the Clock Tower branch before transitioning to the Risk Department as a residential lending quality control analyst. As a significant contributor to several key projects, her responsibilities in Risk Management expanded over the past several years and, earlier this year, she was promoted to Digital Specialist in the Information Technology Department. Barnard is an active volunteer at her church.

Kathryn Korres – Assistant Vice President, Digital Marketing Manager

Kathryn Korres joined the Bank in 2017 as a Marketing Specialist and her responsibilities have grown steadily since. In her tenure, she has contributed to numerous important initiatives including the website redesign and system upgrade communications plan. With this promotion, she will take on the new role of Digital Marketing Manager. Korres volunteer efforts include the Festival of Trees with Ann's Place and Real Food CT.

Phil Lukianuk – Vice President, Regional Business Banking Manager

Phil Lukianuk joined the Bank in 2017 as the manager of our Shelton branch. He later became the Marketing Manager for Shelton before moving to the Newtown market in 2020. Earlier this year, he was promoted to Regional Business Banking Manager. Lukianuk has a deep commitment to partnering with area nonprofits to deliver financial education workshops and volunteers with Trumbull EMS.

Mary Jascha – First Vice President, Chief Lending Officer

Mary Jascha joined the Bank in 2013 as a commercial loan officer and was promoted to senior lender in 2017 and First Vice President in 2018. Under her leadership, the commercial and small business banking teams have performed at a consistently high level. Jascha serves on the board of Real Food CT and the Shelton Economic Development Commission. She is also active with the Friends of Connecticut Institute for Communities.
