Newtown Savings Bank Elects New Corporators

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank elected three new corporators at its annual meeting held at the Waterview in Monroe on Tuesday, March 29th. “We are excited to welcome each of these exceptional individuals to our roster of corporators,” said Ken Weinstein, Newtown Savings Bank President & CEO. In addition to their governance role as part of the bank’s mutual charter, corporators serve as ambassadors in the Bank’s communities.

Neil K. Chaudhary

Dr. Neil Chaudhary serves as CEO and co-owner of Trumbull based Preusser Research Group. PRG primarily conducts traffic safety studies and evaluations for State and Federal governments. Dr. Chaudhary holds a Ph.D. from the Graduate Center of the City University of New York and a B.A. from the University of Rochester. He has published across a variety of areas of traffic safety and has presented his work nationally and internationally. He is a member of CT’s Task Force on Safe Teen Driving, Occupant Protection, and the DUI Task Force. Neil is an active member of his community in Newtown and is the Police Commissioner for Newtown.

Michelle H. James

Ms. Michelle James is the Executive Director of the Community Action Agency of Western Connecticut, an organization that helps low-income individuals achieve self-sufficiency. She has been a non-profit leader for over 20 years. Michelle is also Vice President of the Connecticut Association for Community Action, Treasurer of the New England Community Action Partnership, member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Danbury Chamber of Commerce, member of the Danbury Lions Club, and recently appointed to the Governor’s Workforce Council. She resides in Danbury and has a B.S. from Rutgers University and an MBA from The University of New Haven.

Douglas Howard Wade, Jr.

Mr. Douglas Howard Wade, Jr. earned a B.S. degree from Sacred Heart University. Doug is now the fourth generation President of Wade’s Dairy, a family business. His ongoing community efforts include his service on Boards of Directors for the Bridgeport Regional Business Council, The Council of Churches of Greater Bridgeport, The Fairfield Half Marathon, Juneteenth of Fairfield County, and the Housatonic Community College. Doug is a resident of Shelton and actively supports the St. Vincent’s Swim Across the Sound Foundation and the Alpha Community Services. He has been coordinating the distribution of food boxes every Saturday morning from his facility to families in need through a drive-up operation.
