Dan Rosenthal to join Newtown Savings Bank as First Vice President, Community and Government Relations Officer

NEWTOWN, CT – Dan Rosenthal will be joining Newtown Savings Bank as First Vice President, Community and Government Relations Officer in early January 2024, and will be responsible for developing, implementing, and overseeing strategies to establish, expand, and maintain relationships with key community organizations, government entities, and industry associations.

“Dan has been an outstanding first selectman for Newtown, and we are honored that he has chosen to continue his career by joining the Bank, where he will bring his extensive leadership experience and deep ties to the community,” said Ken Weinstein, President & CEO. He added - “His knowledge of the market area and his experience in financial services, community activities, government relations, facilities oversight and leadership provide him with skills and knowledge that will be easily transferable to his new role”.

In speaking about his decision, Rosenthal stated, “It was important to me that my next chapter gave me the opportunity to positively impact my community and be a part of an exceptional team. I know I’ve found that in Newtown Savings Bank.”

After graduating with a degree in economics from Fairfield University, Rosenthal worked in the investment and insurance businesses prior to being elected Newtown’s first selectman in 2017. In addition to his service in that role, he has served on several local boards and committees, including Newtown Resiliency and Recovery, the Newtown Center for Support and Wellness, Newtown Youth Lacrosse, and the Newtown Rotary Club. Dan lives in Newtown with his wife Meri and their children.
