Newtown Savings Bank Elects New Corporators

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank elected two new corporators at its annual meeting held at the Waterview in Monroe on Tuesday, March 28.

Antonio Fernandes

Antonio Fernandes joined Ventura Law as an attorney in 2015. He is now a Partner and primarily handles personal injury cases. He graduated Cum Laude from Western Connecticut State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration. In 2013, he earned his law degree from New York Law School. Fernandes is a prior Zoning Commissioner for the Town of Brookfield. He is currently teaching Commercial Law as an Adjunct Professor at Western Connecticut State University.

Matthew Gilchrist

Matthew Gilchrist is President of EG Home, which he, and his partner, founded in 2013. The Southbury-based company has built over 250 homes in 5 distinct communities across the state; honored with numerous industry awards including Builder of the Year 2020. He graduated from Villanova University and was then commissioned in the United States Navy where he served 9 years. In 2006, Gilchrist chose to pursue a civilian career building homes and spent six years learning the business from two of the country's biggest production builders. Gilchrist lives in Southbury with his wife, Amy, and their four children.

"We are thrilled to announce the election of these two new Corporators to Newtown Savings Bank," said Ken Weinstein, President & CEO. "Their expertise and unique perspectives will undoubtedly bring value to our organization and contribute to our continued success as an independent mutual savings bank." In addition to their governance role as part of the Bank's mutual charter, corporators serve as ambassadors of the Bank in the community.
