Newtown Savings Bank Named to America's Best Regional Banks and Credit Unions

NEWTOWN, CT – Newtown Savings Bank has been recognized by Newsweek as part of its "America's Best Regional Banks and Credit Unions 2024" ranking.

Thousands of FDIC-insured U.S. banks and credit unions were assessed based on a formula that included measures of profitability, asset quality, lending activity, online banking and mobile app satisfaction scores, and a customer survey. The final ranking included 250 banks and credit unions; Newtown Savings Bank being one of only six named with headquarters in Connecticut.

"We're proud to receive this recognition. It reflects the commitment our employees demonstrate every day to earn and keep the trust of our customers and the community," said Ken Weinstein, President and CEO of Newtown Savings Bank. "It's a privilege to serve our friends and neighbors and, as always, we'll continue work to meet and exceed their expectations."

Newtown Savings Bank offers a full range of products and services to meet the personal and business banking needs of its customers including a wide variety of unique checking and savings options, competitive business and personal lending options, and a full range of online and mobile banking services.
