Newtown Savings Bank Celebrates Opening of new Oxford Branch in Quarry Walk

OXFORD, CT – Newtown Savings Bank celebrated the grand opening of its new Oxford branch last week with a ribbon cutting event attended by local leaders and business owners. The new 2,850 square foot branch, which was constructed by Newtown based Caldwell & Walsh, was the first business to open in Quarry Walk at Oxford Town Center development and is ideally situated at the main entrance on Oxford road. Ken Weinstein, SVP of Retail Banking, commented “we are excited to be part of the very special Quarry Walk development and to have the opportunity to serve the Oxford community”. Newtown Savings Bank President & CEO John Trentacosta added “We want to thank Caldwell Walsh, and all the folks that made this project happen.”
