Why every community needs a community bank

Our very own Anthony F. Giobbi, Executive Vice President/Chief Banking Officer, wrote an article recently published by the Fairfield County Business Journal that highlights the value of community banks. All of us at Newtown Savings Bank believe in the Power of Local – we pride ourselves on the close relationships we build and our deep ties within the community. Here is a brief excerpt from the article: “Precisely because community bankers are among your neighbors and friends, they have a special affinity for providing a superior customer experience to those who walk into their branches or call their customer service centers.” Click below to read the full article.
