Oxford Branch Continues to Grow

Betty Dresser, pictured with Patrick Haynes of Haynes Construction, Seamus Walsh and Doug Hensal of Newtown Savings Bank was the winner of the Haynes Fire Pit from our Oxford Branch Grand Opening Drawing.

Our newest branch located at Quarry Walk in Oxford, continues to grow and serve new customers. We are pleased with our continued growth and we welcome our new branch manager, Susan Kovacs, who is a resident of Oxford herself.

Mortgage Open Houses

If you're in the market for a new home or simply have mortgage questions, come visit us at one of our Mortgage Open House events!

Home Show Tickets

Stop in any branch to pick up your free tickets to the Western New England Home Show in Danbury on March 4 and March 5.

Making a Difference

Thank you to our employee volunteers including Judy Gildea, Ashley Thompson, Emily Walsh, and Ken Weinstein who served food at the United Way of Western CT's Mobile Food Pantry in Bethel last month! Learn more about our employee volunteer program.

New Haven Regional Lending Center

Last month, our New Haven Regional Lending Center hosted a celebration at the New Haven Country Club. The Bank's Hamden-based commercial lending team led by Mark Candido, Regional Director, Commercial Lending thanked the top business leaders who have supported us. With Mark, Dick Barredo, VP, Commercial Loan Officer, and Tony Rossley, VP, Commercial Loan Officer serve the commercial lending needs of the Greater New Haven area.
